LIFE IN WASHINGTON.

SKETCHES ABOUT THE CITY BY THE REPUBLICAS'S REPORTERS.

THE MIGNONETTES -At a meeting held recently by the Mignesotts Literary and Musical Association the following officers were elected: Mr. W. H. Washington, president Miss Ella Y. Chase, recretary; Miss Amelia Tilghman, vice president Mr. S. Murray, treasurer; Mr. C. Y. Gryms, correspondent, and Critic J. P. Jooks; as-siriant secretary.

In BAD LUCK.-During the twenty gated wearly as many as on the previous night. SCHOOL EXAMINATION.—The yearly oral examination of the Intermediate grades of the public rebools will begin this week. The grades will be examined an reading, intellectical arithmetic, geography, penmanship and the studies unually examined at this time of the year. At the meeting of the school beard to merrow night a committee will probably be appointed to arrange a programms for the annual written examinations of all the schools and the computitive annual method of all the schools and the computitive May and June.

A NEGLECTED SPOT .- The attention of A NEGLECTED SPOT.—The attention of the District Commissioners has been frequently called to the condition of the west sidewalk of Third street, between H and C streets southwest. The man-holes project above the pavement several inches. Last night, between the hours of 9 and 10 velock, while a hidy and gentleman were passing that way, the lady struck her too, reli and bruited her lace to such on extent that she will have to be confined to her room for several days.

bear last night the hennery of Mr. Thomas Johnson, residing near Mount Pleasant, was en-tered and robbed by some third or thieves un-known to the authorities of a dozen him chickers, valued by the owner at more than twenty dollars. The raids on the chicken coops in this locality have been frequent of late, and it is high tune the police in this section or the Detroid their duties.

James McDermott, on Missouri avenue nea First street, was entered by burglars on Satu day night, who after breaking through a bas dsy night, who after breaking through a base-ment window male a general tour through the bedrooms where the occupants were asleep ran-sacked the burean darwers, rifled Mr. McDer-mott's pasts pockets of a gold watch and 410 in menty, and bedge leaving, the party, who exemed to be four in number, gathered up chairs, around the parter fire and emptied a bottle of wine they had found somewhere on the premises

The founders of the association intend taking the idle colored boys from the streets, teaching them useful trades, whereby they may earn houses livings for themselves in the future. It is also thought that many jouths can be saved from bad ends, and many of them pursuing a drunkard? source re-many of them pursuing a drunkard? source re-many of them pursuing a drunkard? source re-many of them pursuing a drunkard? source remany of them pursuing a drunkard's course re-claimed. The society expects to be self-sup-porting in time, but at present is dependent on the charity of its friends for sustenance, and de-sations thus bestowed will not only be merited, but bestowed worthip.

RICHMOND'S LADY POSTMASTER .- A delegation of colored gentlemen from Richmond, Ye., are in the city, hearing a monster petition, signed by all the colored pastors and leading business men and citizens of color in that city, praying the President to reappoint Miss Van Lew to the position she now holds as postmaster of Richmond, Miss Van Lew has held this position the ministration of General ef Richmond. Miss Van Lew has held this posi-tion during the administration of General Grant, and has the confidence and respect of the entitions, and the colored peoples—whose cause she is always ready to espouse—are deeply interested in having her retailed. rier paironage since she has had control of the office has been liberally nestowed among the colored citizens, far which cause the colored citizens are the colored cut churches in that city entreated her to a love them the privilege of interceding the President in her behalf. An Uncatled Fon Exposure. — A young lawyer left a building on Louisians avenue, near Sixth street, rather suddenly Saturday afternoon. To those on the outside it did appear to be an optional departure. The door was opened suddenly, the young jurist was shot out, and didn't touch the steps or anything until he reached the sidewalk. He gathered bimself together, and raising himself to a perpendicular turned red, and begin to awar at a terrible race, and say what he would do if he had a certain person's head under his arm.

The young lawyer had on mithing but a sussitive production of the substantial person's head on the one of the substantial person's head under his arm.

Catholic Notes.

Although not positively known, it is reported and generally believed that a change will be made soon in the pastorship of Trinity church. Georgetown, and that Father De Wolff will be relieved by Father Charles Fulmer, who is now associated with Father Maguire in utiesion work in New England. From both the effects of the rigorous Northern climate and the labor consequent on missionary work Father Falmer's health has become to impaired as to necessitate achange in his field of labor. An additional assistant pastor will, it is thought, soon be furnished to St. Aloysius' church, and it is rumored in authentic circles that Father Maguire will soon receive the appointment of Provincial of the soon receive the appointment of Provincial of the Jesuits in this section.

A Mother Seeking Her Child, Telegraph to the National Republic New York, March 11.—A petition presented to Judge Lawrence yesterday by Ellon Seynisch states that she was married to her husband, Edmund F. Seynisch, in 1872. The fruit of their union was one child named Lonius, now nearly three years old. Her husband, she states, has abandoned her, taking with him the child, which he has zerreted. He, moreover, refuses to recognize her as his wife, and has openly asserted that the marriage was a more tovalid formula. Upon her petition Judge Lawrence granted a writ of haddes corpus, returnable on Monday, to obtain possessed on the child. She aware that her has been of the child.
